

Flying Home

(Laura J. Miller, Cindy Collins, 2016)

Verse

I tucked a note in your bag before you left today
It's stuck between your camos and your blues and grays
It's my hope to bring you home
While I wait for you all alone
And I'll search for peace until I see that day

Chorus

'Cause you can't come flying home to me tonight
A soldier first. I understand. That's right.
Be strong. Be brave. Come home to stay
Pray to God to keep you safe
'Cause you can't come flying home to me tonight

Verse

I grew a garden a few yards from our tree
Watching TV's really no company
I sent a package to help get you through
The holidays will come real soon,
And, I'm heading off to church this afternoon

Chorus

'Cause you can't come flying home to me tonight
A soldier first. I understand. That's right.
Be strong. Be brave. Come home to stay.
I pray to God to keep you safe
'Cause you can't come flying home to me tonight

Bridge

I miss the sound of your voice, your laughter and your kiss
You've been gone before, but never quite like this

Chorus

And they said you'll be flying home to me tonight
No flag unfurled. You'll soon stand by my side.
You're strong. You're brave. You'll be home to stay.
Thank God, He kept you safe
'Cause you'll soon be flying home to me tonight
